GOOD TO KNOW BEFORE YOU BOOK

- Diver prerequisites - Diver level Minimum OWD or AOWD with 20+ logged dives. Please bring along your dive certification cards. If you have lost your certificates, we can check online certificates for PADI. Your dive certificate is mandatory to dive.
- If last time you went diving was more than 6 months ago &/ have less than 30 logged dives you will need to do a scuba review prior to trip.
- Maximum depth for each diver is according to their certification level. However usually maximum dive depth wouldn't exceed 30m.
- The nearest re-compression chamber is in Cebu City.
- All diving is guided with a maximum of 6 divers per guide
- If you miss the dive briefing you will not be allowed to join the dive.
- No alcohol is permitted before or between dives.
- It's recommended that each buddy team dive with an SMB, which are provided free of charge
- Make sure that you drink enough fluids during the day, "Decompression Sickness" and ill-being are commonly associated with dehydration.
- 15 litre tanks are available and need to be pre booked.
- Those using an underwater camera need to comply with the "Safe Diving" and the "Ecological Awareness" rules. The guides or instructors may prohibit you to use the camera underwater if the same are not adhered to.
- Check in time on the liveaboard is between 11am - 4pm.
- Food: Cuisines include Thai, Pilipino, Chinese, Indian and Western. All food is served buffet style with snacks and fruit available throughout the day. The boat can cater to special requests, however please limit those to allergies or religious beliefs only. Water, tea, coffee, soft drinks, beer and wine is free of charge, liquors available for purchase on boat.
- There is NO guest internet available on board. There is satellite connection for emergencies only. Mobile phone signal strength varies throughout each cruise but is typically stronger when in close proximity to major islands, such as Cebu, Negros or Palawan.
- All prices are in US dollar... They do accept Euro, GBP, CNY, Au1, or Philippine Peso onboard as well.
